TO PRESENT EVERYONE MATURE IN CHRIST

Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ.

Colossians 1:28

Almighty God,
 who through your only-begotten Son Jesus Christ
 overcame death and opened to us
 the gate of everlasting life:
 we humbly beseech you that,
 as by your special grace going before us
 you put into our minds good desires,
 so by your continued help we may bring them to good effect;
 through Jesus Christ our Lord,
 who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and forever. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

He Has Risen, What About Me?

We have just went through Lent and Holy Week, and together we commemorated the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. This period has been a time of deep emotion, repentance and renewal for many of us. We have been moved by the message of the cross and encouraged by the hope of His resurrection. But as the Lenten season passes, we need to pause and ask ourselves a simple question: The Lord has risen, what about me?

The Bible reminds us in Colossians 3:1–2: “If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth.” This passage makes it clear that the resurrection is not just something we believe in. It is a life we are to live out. All too often, our understanding of the resurrection remains merely at the level of ‘knowing’. We know that Jesus has risen, and we believe that He has conquered sin and death. Yet when we return to our daily lives, we may find that our pace of life, our focus, and even what our heart rely on, have not really changed. The emotions we felt during Lent slowly fades in our busyness, and soon we find ourselves back in our old ways. I am sure there were moments when we were truly prompted and moved, but such spiritual highs are not easily sustained. When life returns to its usual routine, and pressures and responsibilities pile up again, we can easily get caught up in many things and even forget what once touched our hearts. Therefore, Paul is not reproaching us here, but reminding us: since we have been raised with Christ, we ought to live differently. To “seek the things that are above” does not mean running away from the realities of life. Instead, we are called to continually turn to the Lord in our daily lives. We will still face the demands of work, family and other responsibilities, but we are no longer driven solely by the matters before our eyes. Rather, we are to live with Christ at the centre – seeking His will in our decisions, relying on Him in times of pressure, and living out His love in our relationships.

A resurrected life is not necessarily reflected through dramatic, earth-shattering changes. More often than not, it is a gradual change that emerges in the ordinary – a little more gentleness in how we speak, a little more obedience in the choices we make, a little more trust when we face difficulties. Such changes may be inconspicuous, yet they are a genuine expression of a life ‘raised with Christ’. Therefore, Easter is not just something we remember once a year. It is a reminder to live out our new life day by day. The Lord has risen and has granted us new life. As for me, am I also living it out daily, step by step? May we not merely stop at commemorating the Lord’s resurrection, but may we also, gradually and daily, live out our new life in Christ.

PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

WORLD

On this Holy Saturday/Easter Sunday, let us pause from the noise of wars and conflicts, and lift our eyes to the promise of new beginnings. Let us pray that the hope of the resurrection may be felt across all the world, awakening us to forgiveness and guiding hearts toward peace. We give thanks that the Lord is at work, even when His ways are unseen and our understanding is limited. May His blessings be poured out across nations, bringing healing where there is brokenness and hope where there is despair. Let us seek the Lord for a spiritual renewal in our world, and may the joy of Easter continue to encourage us each day

SINGAPORE

Let us pray for our government as they navigate complex challenges, from global conflicts to rising inflation and energy costs. May our Prime Minister, Lawrence Wong, and his team be guided with wisdom, clarity, and purpose in every decision they make. We also seek the Lord's mercy amid the worsening haze. May He clear the skies and restore clean air to our land, and grant protection to the elderly and those vulnerable to respiratory illness.

WESTSIDE ANGLICAN CHURCH

Resurrection Sunday

We come before our Lord Jesus Christ with hearts full of thanksgiving, and to celebrate His victory over death. Through His victory, we are given new life, hope and freedom.

Ask the Lord to help us remember the cost of His sacrifice and to trust fully in His love. May He help us to walk in the joy and power of the resurrection in every day of our life.

We pray for our families, our church, and our communities, that the light of Christ may shine through. May our lives reflect God's love, humility and grace. We also lift up those who do not yet know Him. May the message of resurrection reach them in ways that touch their hearts, break the chains of bondage and bring them into His saving love.

May the power of resurrection transform us, renew us and send us out as witnesses of His glory.

LEGACY GIVING

*“For all things come from You, and of Your own have we given You.”
1 Chronicles 29:14*

Legacy giving, also known as bequest giving or planned giving, enables you to contribute to the mission and ministry of the church by planning in advance a donation that will be made upon your death. It is a meaningful demonstration of your stewardship of the resources that God has entrusted to you.

If you would like to plan your legacy giving, please approach the Priest-in-charge, Revd Kelvin Koo, for more information.

CELL GROUPS

We gather in small groups (known as cell groups) for encouragement through bible study, prayer & other activities. We welcome you to join us! If you would like to find out more, do email the cell leaders directly.
