Colossians 1:28

COLLECT All Saints' Day

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Sharing the Grace Across Generations

"from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love." - Ephesians 4:16

The Apostle Paul describes the church as the body of Christ, with Christ as the head and every member joined together in Him. Each of us has a place and a part to play, building each other up in the love of Christ. Though we are of different ages and backgrounds, it is by God's grace that we are brought together as one family in Christ.

The baptism and confirmation services held over these two weeks are a beautiful testimony to this grace. From infants, children, youths to adults receiving baptism, as well as youths, adults and seniors affirming their faith during the confirmation service, their respective life experiences and stories of faith all testify to God's work in their lives.

Baptism shows us that God's grace is not dependent on our age, experience or achievement. Whether it is an infant just beginning life or an older adult who has walked through various seasons of life, we all need God's grace. Through baptism we are united in Christ, becoming a member of His body and a part of this spiritual family that is the church. Being part of this family goes beyond worshipping together on Sundays, as it is also about showing care, acceptance and mutual support.

Confirmation shows us how God's grace continues to work in our lives. As brothers and sisters in Christ of different ages publicly affirm their faith and commit themselves to following

Christ, we see that faith is not simply about a decision made at one point in life, but a lifelong journey of commitment and growth. So whether it is the exploration of youth, the responsibilities of adulthood, or the life reflections of old age, every stage of life brings new learning and challenges, as well as opportunities to continue trusting God and responding to His call.

Psalm 145:4 says, "One generation shall commend your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts." This verse reminds us that faith is passed on as we walk alongside one another and share what God has done in our lives. The older ones can testify to God's faithfulness through their life experiences, while the younger ones bring fresh energy, faith and enthusiasm to the church. Even children, through their simple faith in God, can encourage us to look to Him with childlike faith. When different generations are willing to share God's wondrous works and listen to each other's experiences, our faith is no longer just a personal matter. It becomes a living faith that we share, nurture and pass on from one generation to the next.

As we approach the season of Advent, we remember once again the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ and look forward with hope to His return. The grace we have received is not just something we look back on, but also becomes our strength to continue following Him. May we cherish the spiritual family that God has given us — building each other up in love, growing stronger together in faith, and holding fast to our hope as we await our Lord's return.

PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

WORLD

Pray for God's Spirit to move in the United States, guiding the nation as it prepares for the midterm elections on 3 November. Ask God to raise up men and women of integrity and wisdom who will serve the common good. Pray that those elected will work diligently to fulfil their promises, and that despite differences across party lines, they will share a common desire to serve the nation and the well-being of its people. Remember also the many immigrants who have made America their home in pursuit of the American Dream, that they too may live with dignity, hope, and opportunity.

SINGAPORE

Pray for God's favour upon Singapore and its leaders as they navigate the complex relationships and interdependencies with other nations that are vital to our survival and well-being. Ask the Lord to grant our government wisdom and discernment as they build and strengthen bilateral ties, that these relationships may be founded on mutual respect, trust, and shared benefits. Pray that God will guide our leaders in safeguarding the nation's interests while fostering goodwill with our neighbours and partners, and grant Singapore the resilience and resourcefulness to meet the challenges ahead.

PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

WESTSIDE ANGLICAN CHURCH

Pray for all confirmation candidates as they prepare to affirm their faith in Jesus Christ and renew their commitment to follow Him. Ask the Lord to grant them a deeper understanding of the Christian faith and a greater desire to grow in their relationship with Him. Pray that the Holy Spirit will strengthen and guide them, helping them to stand firm in their faith, live out Christian values in their daily lives, and discover their gifts for serving God and others. May they grow into mature disciples of Christ, committed to worship, fellowship, service, and sharing the love of God with those around them.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Join us at St Andrew's Cathedral (New Sanctuary) for our annual Diocesan Day of Prayer and Fast.

Our theme this year is drawn from Psalm 42:7: "Deep calls to deep at the roar of your waterfalls." Amid a rapidly changing world, we gather this year not only to pray, but to wait upon the Lord and listen — to hear afresh how he is calling us to be faithful to the people and places entrusted to us.

Join Anglicans from across our parishes as we gather in worship, prayer and intercession, seeking God together, listening for his voice, and responding to his call for our generation.

The Diocesan Missions Gathering brings us together to hear what God is doing across our seven deaneries and to better understand their unique needs, challenges and opportunities. Meet our Deans and mission partners, hear stories from the field, and discover how you and your parish can participate more meaningfully in God's mission. Whether you are exploring missions for the first time or already actively involved, come and discover where God may be calling you next.

12 November 2026, Thursday, 7.30pm @ St Andrew's Cathedral
